COMMISSION
ON FOREIGN ECONOMIC POLICY

FOURTH AND C STREETS SW.
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

October 8, 1953

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

My first thought this morning is to write you this personal note to thank you for that very intelligent briefing which you gave the Commission yesterday.

I realize it entailed considerable sacrifice in the midst of your extraordinarily busy life to give us that much time, but nothing could have been more important in the opening of the minds of this Commission to the gravity of our problems than the series of conferences we were privileged to enjoy.

Thanks ever so much.

Sincerely yours,

Clarence B. Randall
Chairman
